Information

Koshmal Waterfall – A Hidden Gem in Gujarat’s Dangs

Located deep within the forests of Dang district, Koshmal Waterfall (also called Bhigu Dhodh) is one of Gujarat’s tallest and most scenic waterfalls. Reached via a short 1 km trek through dense greenery, it offers a breathtaking view—especially during the monsoon season, when the falls are in full flow.

The surrounding forest, misty hills, and the sound of gushing water create a serene, almost untouched atmosphere. With no tourist facilities nearby, it's a perfect spot for those seeking raw nature and offbeat adventure. Be sure to carry essentials and consider taking a local guide for the trek.

Koshmal is not just a waterfall—it's a peaceful retreat into the wild heart of South Gujarat.
